References:

- * 'stored safely and securely' means:
- (a) stored in a manner calculated to ensure that the sword:
- (i) is not readily accessible to a person other than the person seeking to rely on the exemption; and
  - (ii) is not available for possession, carriage or use by any person who does not belong to a class of exempt persons specified in the above Table or who does not hold an approval issued by the Chief Commissioner of Police; and
- (b) when being transported between the sword's usual place of storage and places at which the sword is legitimately used in accordance with this Order:
- (i) stored in a manner calculated to ensure that the sword is not readily accessible to a person other than the person seeking to rely on the exemption; and
  - ii) concealed from plain sight during transportation.
- ** A person seeking to rely on this exemption must, on request, permit a member of the police force to inspect his or her storage arrangements at any reasonable pre-arranged time
- *** These records must be kept for the duration of operation of the exemption and must be made available to a member of the police force for inspection at any reasonable pre-arranged time.
- **** The record must be in the form and manner prescribed under the Control of Weapons Act 1990, and must be kept for 3 years after the sale. A member of the police force at any reasonable time may require the person to produce the record for inspection.
- ***** A person seeking to rely on this exemption to display a sword with an historical or cultural significance must ensure that the display occurs in the person's residential home or at an official event associated with the organisation of which the person is a member (being an organisation specified in Column 1 in the above Table), and that the display is only made for purposes genuinely associated with the study and collection of swords with historical or cultural significance.
- ***** A person under the age of 18 is not permitted to purchase any prohibited weapon including a sword. However, a person aged under 18 years who belongs to a class of exempt person specified in this Order may lawfully possess, use or carry a sword subject to the terms and conditions of the exemption.
- ***** Prohibited persons:
This Order does not apply to a person who is a prohibited person as defined in section 3 of the Control of Weapons Act 1990<sup>1</sup>, regardless of whether that person is a member of a class or classes of persons specified in Column 1 of the Table.
- (<sup>1</sup> prohibited person has the same meaning as in section 3(1) of the Firearms Act 1996; an extract is available on the WTQA Website)
